

TWENTY-FOURTH YEAR

PHOENIX, ARIZONA, SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1914

VOL. XXIV. NO. 329

Society

bran plays the lead and is even better than when, as Brown, he won every member of the audience, that in numbers and enthusiasm will be more than duplicated in this performance. It is not fair to say Mr. Hildebrand is a splendid amateur actor; he is so superior to the majority of professionals that have ap-

Miss Alice Redewill

All news for this department must be at The Republican office Thursday evening. All items must be signed.
SOCIETY EDITOR

Easter has arrived. Society with a clear conscience will enjoy the spring that in gayety bids fair to outlive winter. During Lent there were the usual small affairs to enliven the forty days of quiet and add interest to life, but the important social events were postponed until after Easter. The milder next few days will be flooded with invitations. In fact, dates really have to be announced weeks and weeks in advance and even then it seems hardly possible to crowd in all the functions that have been planned for the season. The Elks' state reunion will bring many visitors to Phoenix and a round of pleasure awaits them. Every minute of their stay holds a pleasant attraction, and to them and to all Arizona, there is no interest greater than the Sun Fete which is scheduled for this memorable week. The first calendar offering is the Singers' club concert and dance which will take place tomorrow evening at the Woman's club. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the event that has been long and eagerly anticipated, the Elks' play "Secret Service" will be presented at the Elks theater under the direction of Maitland Davies by an all-star cast. Thursday afternoon Mrs. John Dunlap and Mrs. Ben Butler will entertain at the Woman's club in honor of Miss Emma Thalheimer, a popular bride elect. Mrs. Thomas Flint Nichols will give an auction Friday afternoon at her apartments at the Redewill and Mrs. W. S. Goldworthy and Mrs. C. M. Scott will entertain on this and the following day with luncheon and auction at the Goldworthy residence on West Roosevelt street.

For three nights this week "Secret Service" will be the attraction. For more than three weeks the cast has been rehearsing the great war play which will score a phenomenal hit. Nothing like it in the way of directing and acting has been seen in Phoenix. The "Brown of Harvard" success, the popularity of "Christopher, Jr." will be forgotten when the Elks' players are seen in their latest venture. Maitland Davies, to whom full credit is due for past amateur efforts, will win new laurels, for in "Secret Service" he has had a different type of play to direct and new actors to prepare for their parts. Not all new. Frank Hildebrand plays the lead and is even better than when, as Brown, he won every member of the audience, that in numbers and enthusiasm will be more than duplicated in this performance. It is not fair to say Mr. Hildebrand is a splendid amateur actor; he is so superior to the majority of professionals that have appeared here this winter that he deserves the criticism that would be accorded any star on an opening night. Honorable Sidney P. Osborn, secretary of state, will make his first appearance, which means that the showbusiness will have another favorite. He reads his lines cleverly, and like Mr. Hildebrand has splendid stage presence. Pretty little Miss Ruth Griffin, one of the season's most popular debutantes, will charm everyone by her delightful conception of a delightful role. The entire cast has been well selected and it is safe to predict equally happy houses for every evening.

The seventeenth seems to be the favorite date for hostesses for it has been chosen by Mrs. Frank J. Blount, Mrs. B. P. Elliot and Miss Nell Blount for an informal tea. They are planning a larger affair for Wednesday of next week when they will give a brilliant reception at their home on North Central avenue. Preceding evening the Elks give their annual ball at Patrick Hall and the six days round of pleasures will come to a close with the Country club tea on Saturday. Mrs. J. W. Dorris and Mrs. C. D. Dorris will preside. These affairs, with the best of interest and social club meetings that will occupy place on the tapis will have even the most ardent pleasure lovers. Later in April will be other notable events. Mrs. Roy S. Goodrich will give an auction Thursday a week at the Woman's club and on Tuesday, the twenty-eighth, Mrs. Celora Martin Stoddard will give an auction afternoon at the Country club complimentary to Miss Ann Croft Camden.

Word from Vienna brings the interesting news that Miss Alice Redewill is to return to Phoenix in November. Miss Redewill entered the musical class at the Conservatory not home before she begins her concert tour, and she is planning to be here on Thanksgiving when the Redewill family hold a reunion. She is a charming girl, sweet, unselfish and gracious, and a favorite with all who know her.

Mrs. J. E. Redewill gave an exquisitely appointed luncheon of ten courses Wednesday at her North Fourth avenue residence. In the center of the table was a large bowl of lovely lavender and pink pink roses and about this pretty ornament dished delicately tinted pink table ribbon. The place cards were miniature pink parrots holding a shower of sweet peas.

Among the tennis players and on-lookers at the Country club Wednesday were Mrs. Ernest Lowist, Louis H. Chambers, Mrs. Herbert Burr Atha, Mrs. Gordon Wood, Mrs. Charles McArthur, Mrs. William J. Seabury, Mrs. Richard E. Sloan, Mrs. C. F. Amesworth, Mrs. Warren McArthur, Mrs. W. C. Foster, Mrs. Walter Tolbot, Mrs. Annell Martin, Mrs. Webb Griffin, Mrs. Roy Parsons, Mrs. Herbert Burr Atha, Jr., Miss Ruth Amesworth, Miss Eleanor Sloan, Miss Rena Dorris, Miss Ellen Conway, Miss Selma Goldberg and Miss Ruth Jessop.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Perry de Mard of North Second avenue gave one of the pleasant affairs of the week Wednesday evening when they entertained with auction, roses and sweet peas decorated the card rooms with charming effect. The prizes were won by Mrs. W. S. Goldworthy and A. G. Hubert. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Francis, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Collins, Mrs. and Mrs. W. S. Goldworthy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hubert, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Parker, Mrs. C. Byrne and Captain P. P. Parker.

Last week was one of many picnic suppers, a jolly affair taking place on the desert Friday evening. Mrs. J. W. Dorris, Mrs. F. H. Rose and Mrs. O. E. Crandall championed the raggedal coffee, which included Miss Rena Dorris, Miss Kate Wilson, Miss Katherine Kernan, Miss Selma Goldberg, Miss Marion Dorris, Miss Ruth Rose, Miss Mabel Hocker, Miss Jeanne Ripley, John Rinker Kibbey, Lindsey Morton, John Rinker Kibbey, Lewis, Arthur Halton, Roy Murray, William Horrell, Irving de R. Miller, Lester Byron and Hugh D. Marshall.

In compliment to Mrs. William C. Gillespie, a recent arrival from Nashville, Mrs. James B. Gillespie of 1408 North Third street gave a delightful tea Wednesday afternoon. There was no attempt at formal decoration, the pretty floral effects, resulting from the bouquets and baskets of roses that were arranged here and there in graceful irregularity. A test of the modiste prizes were won by Mrs. G. A. Greer and Mrs. J. W. Dorris. Asked to meet Mrs. Gillespie were Mrs. James H. McClintock, Mrs. H. J. McTung, Mrs. J. W. Dorris, Mrs. Daniel P. Palmer, Mrs. Louis Dysart, Mrs. Herbert Parsons, Mrs. Allen Zent, Mrs. F. B. Baptist, Mrs. G. A. Greer, Mrs. B. M. Parker and Miss Louise Ross.

Mrs. A. A. Parker of Los Angeles, was the motif for a delightful neighborhood thimble afternoon, over which Mrs. Henry D. Ross presided Thursday at her home on North Central avenue. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Ross and had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Parker were Mrs. Thomas Winston Peck, Mrs. David P. Palmer, Mrs. J. Elliot Walker, Mrs. Caroline Kibbey, Mrs. Edward Kent, Mrs. E. A. Trade, Mrs. William Thomas, Mrs. R. H. de Grasse, Mrs. F. E. Palmer, Mrs. William Scarborough and Mrs. H. M. Elliot.

Mr. and Mrs. Sims Ely, Jr., of West Monroe street, made Miss Lucy Laidigh the inspiration for a dinner of charming appointments Wednesday evening. The red color scheme used in decoration was conceived in a profusion of roses arranged with artistic effect. Covers were laid for eight.

One of the recent smart events was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Celora Martin Stoddard who had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tweed, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hartman, Miss Ann Croft and Judge Edward Kent.

Motorists are taking advantage of a delightful spring to enjoy long runs to the many places of interest in the state. Roosevelt, Globe and the Cliff Dwellings were visited by a party that were Dr. and Mrs. John Dettel, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wilkinson, Dr. and Mrs. Anell Martin, Dr. and Mrs. William G. Lentz, Mrs. N. G. Squires and Miss Kate Christy.

A pleasant event of the week was the desert picnic supper Tuesday evening. Those present were Mrs. F. H. Rose, Mrs. Celora Martin Stoddard, Miss Ann Croft, Miss Ruth Amesworth, Miss Marion Dorris, Miss Ruth Jessop, Miss Selma Goldberg, Miss Ruth Rose, Stephen Goodman, John Rinker Kibbey, Roy Murray, William Horrell, Ernest Bennett, Lester Byron and Hugh Marshall.

Mrs. A. J. Bradley, a much feted visitor from San Diego, was the guest of honor at an informal auction given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. M. Swatnam. The Swatnam residence on West Adams street was attractively decorated with spring flowers and greenery. The card prizes were captured by Mrs. George H. L. Lohrs and Mrs. M. D. Novinger.

Miss Mary Louise Pinney, an attractive and favorite member of the junior set, gave an Easter luncheon yesterday at her home, 1579 West Adams street. The table decorations were elaborate on every detail was suggestive of the season. The centerpiece was a cleverly wrought nest containing gayly tinted eggs. In and about the greenery were rabbits and the corners were mantled with baskets of eggs. The hand-painted place cards featured Easter blossoms and marked places for Miss Mary Sloan, Miss Ruth Bartis, Miss Genevieve Cope, Miss Mary Stuart, Miss Marion Davidson, Miss Katy Hecshund and Miss Gladys Stuart.

Mrs. Victor Redewill of East Culver street contributed to the week's pleasure Wednesday with an enjoyable afternoon of auction. Mrs. Julian Holmes made the highest score and the guests included Mrs. Paul O. Brewster, Mrs. B. A. Pickles, Mrs. Eugene Redewill, Mrs. Julian Holmes, Mrs. Win Wyllie, Mrs. Gratian Dougherty and Mrs. Jack Holmes.

Miss Fay De Mond and Miss Emma Lohrs are the week-end guests of Mrs. Gratian Dougherty of Mesa.

Miss Lillian Huggert, who passed the winter here, will leave Monday for Lordsburg. She will spend the summer in New Mexico and will return to Phoenix in the autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Holden left Monday for the northern part of the state, where they will pass a few weeks en route for Boston.

Mrs. G. J. Wiggan and her little daughter, Miss Thelma Wiggan, will arrive from Los Angeles this morning and pass several weeks here, the guests of Judge and Mrs. J. M. Jamison. Mrs. Wiggan will be pleasantly recalled as Miss Belle Stevens, a prominent and popular member of local society a few seasons ago. During her stay here she will be the inspiration for many smart events.

Mrs. Robert Wallace Craig will leave shortly for a brief absence in San Francisco. Her daughter, Miss Kittle Craig, who passed her Easter vacation here, has returned to Los Angeles, where she is attending Marlborough school.

Miss Ruth Heney will return to Tucson the latter part of the week, after a month's stay in town, the guest of Mrs. George H. Smalley of 846 North Fifth avenue. Miss Heney is a charming girl and has been the recipient of many pleasant social attentions during her stay in Phoenix.

Herbert Burr Atha will return tomorrow in an absence of several weeks in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Celora Martin Stoddard, Miss Ann Croft and Hugh Marshall left yesterday for Tucson, where they will pass the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hartman of North Central avenue leave tomorrow for California. They will be away a week.

His Shop in Order

The Progressive Merchant Has:

An attractive store which acts as a continual invitation—

Polite and Painstaking salespeople, who serve you intelligently—

A stock of modern merchandise to choose from, well selected, well displayed, the kind the public wants.

This merchant keeps his stock in order.

It is a pleasant and safe place in which to do business.

McDougall & Cassou

The "New Way" Men's Shop.

Easter could not be ushered in more joyously. Monday of Easter week the Singers' club will give a concert and dance at the Woman's club that will be one of the particularly smart events of spring. This has always been a favorite organization of society and its members will be well represented in tomorrow night's audience. The soloists who will assist the club chorists will be Mrs. Selma J. Ross, soprano, and Miss Clara Cannon, pianiste. Mrs. George Fowler Gardiner will be the accompanist. Maitland Davies, director, has arranged a program of more than ordinary merit.

Mrs. Fairie A. Thorpe, daughter of Mrs. S. A. Jenkins of 1412 East Washington street, and Charles H. Reuter were married Saturday evening, April 4, at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage. Reverend Ray Barker read the service. Only the immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony, and the wedding will come as a great surprise to their host of friends, who were told the marriage was to take place today. The bride is well known and liked in Phoenix, and Mr. Reuter is equally popular. He is associated in business with the Southwestern Motor company. They have taken up their residence at 1211 East Washington street.

Anna Caliente was the niece for many Phoenixians the past fortnight, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lockett, Mrs. James H. McClintock, Mrs. William Perry Sears, Mrs. Clay Leonard, Mrs. Harry Kay, J. M. Sears and Frank Lang.

Several delightful events are being arranged in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hampton, who are passing their honeymoon in Honolulu. Their marriage, which took place in California last week, was a decided surprise to local society, as the engagement of the popular Clifton girl and well-known club man was never formally announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren McArthur, Jr., returned Wednesday from a week's absence in Nogales.

A large contingent of fashionable folk, motored to the Yaqui village last evening to attend the Indian dance. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Alsdorf had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smalley, Miss Ruth Honey and George Alsdorf. The Alsdorfs are recent arrivals from California and have taken apartments at the Blenheim for the remainder of the season. During their short residence in Phoenix they have made many friends, who are delighted they are to remain for a longer period.

In honor of her attractive children, Miss Eleanor Winsor, Miss Marguerite Winsor and Mifford Winsor, Jr., Mrs. Mifford Winsor gave an Easter party yesterday at her North Fourth avenue residence. In a setting typical of the season, the young folk enjoyed a series of games and egg rolling was a jolly feature of the occasion. Hundreds of eggs, gayly colored and filled with confetti, and rabbits were utilized not only to decorate, but to provide pleasure for the youngsters, who were Miss Yndia Smalley, Miss Sylvia Lewis, Miss Emma Winburn Smalley, Miss Winifred Dysart, Miss Evelyn Hayes, Miss Gwendolyn Williams, Miss Gladys Case, Miss Ruth Nelson, Miss Marcia Van der Voort, Miss Marjorie Robinson, Miss Lucile Doster, Miss Mildred Hayes, Miss Mabel English, Miss Clara Van Dorn.

Miss Eleanor Alexander, Miss Jane Farish, Miss Bunny Miller, Miss Florence McKee, Miss Helen Jacobs, Miss Lora Burt, Miss Kathryn Baum, Miss Virginia Hunt, Jack Page, William McKee, Ernest Baum, Burney Dysart, George Van Dorn, Hadley Williams, Watson Defty, John Kimmis, Clifford Van Dorn and Palmer Dysart.

J. W. Dorris, after a week's stay in San Francisco, left for Honolulu, where he is at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Brown contributed to last week's gaiety with a card evening at their North Central avenue residence. The living rooms were effectively decorated in a profusion of roses, combined with ferns.

(Continued on Next Page)

THE CHALET Apartments

2375 Scott St.
LOS ANGELES

Overlooking Beautiful St. James Park

Single and Double Apartments. New, modern, finely appointed, large airy rooms, big shady porches and private balconies. Special rates for the full summer season. Only a few apartments available.

MRS. E. M. CASEY, Prop.

LOOK
ALL
SHEET
MUSIC
10c
A COPY
Miller-Sterling Co.
"Where Quality Counts"
42 North Center

Easter
marks the Resurrection and beginning of Life Anew.
It is a good opportunity to forget old habits, and form new plans, which should include a plan for Saving—for setting aside part of your earnings.
Come out of your sleep—Rise in the World about you—form the habit of Saving Money and be Independent.
Interest 4% Compounded

Unexpected!

"WHY, EDDIE,

"You said it was an old house!" "And so it is. But Long's painter has been at work. That is the difference."

A house is only as old as it looks. Consult us, as Eddie did. Make your house new.

Long's Paint and Paper House

37 North First Avenue.

Phone 1550